Risk Management Consulting

- 1) Served as General/Special Counsel or advisor for various sport associations and work with them and their clients to handle various risk and safety concerns. These associations include the Sportsplex Operators and Developers Association (SODA), Resort and Commercial Recreation Association (RCRA), World Amateur Sports Association (WASA), Pop Warner Football and Little Scholars, and the International Association of Assembly Managers (IAAM). Assist organization in finding appropriate legal representation when necessary.
- 2) Conducted risk management audit for a martial arts studio which produced a comprehensive facility audit for future safety updating. 1999. Have since conducted several audits of schools, gyms, parks, and even a city's municipal departments.

- 3) Provide support to Sadler & Co. clients in addressing risk management issues. Sadler & Co. is one of the largest sports insurance brokers in the United States. 1997-present. Helped design the sexual abuse prevention program for Dixie Baseball League.
- 4) Developed the educational material and curriculum for the IAAM's Academy for Venue Safety and Security, which is endorsed by MLB, NF, DHS, and others as an intensive four day training program for security/safety officials at public assembly facilities.
- 5) Hired by a large housing development in Houston to help create appropriate signage to reduce the risk of injury at parks and other recreational areas.
- 6) Served as Director of Risk Management for a large facility management company (OR&L Facility Management) and assisted with facility audits and other risk management strategies. OR&L now manages the Orlando Magic's arena (Amway Center).
- 7) Serve as an advisory board member for Incord, a large netting company that produces nets for various industries, including the sport industry. 2017-present.

My expert witness work has been covered by the following publications:

New York Times, Washington Post, Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles Daily Journal, Houston Chronicle, Texas Lawyer, The Plain Dealer, Sun-Sentinel, The Dallas Morning News, San Antonio Express-News, Orlando Sentinel, The Recorder, AP Wire Service, CBS National Radio News, The National Law Journal, The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, among other publications.

My research into sport litigation abuse was highlighted in congressional hearing in the House Report 108-682 - LAWSUIT ABUSE REDUCTION ACT OF 2004

ABC News reported that:

When his 16-year-old son didn't get the most valuable player award, Michel Croteau didn't get upset. He hired a lawyer and sued his son's youth hockey league to the tune of more than $200,000 . . . The Croteaus are not alone. In the last year, parents have filed more than 200 non-injury-related sports lawsuits against coaches, leagues and school districts in the United States, according to Gil Fried, a University of New Haven professor who specializes in sports law . . . The Butzke family sued the Comsewogue, N.Y., school district because their eighth-grade daughter was taken off the varsity high school soccer team. The Branco family took legal action against the Washington Township, N.J., school district after their son, David, was cut from the junior varsity basketball team . . . The Rubin family sued California's New Haven Unified School District for $1.5 million because their son got kicked off the varsity basketball team . . . The family felt James Logan High School Coach Blake Chong may have cost their son not just a scholarship, but an NBA career. 26
